Call for Expression of Interest to Supply of Office furniture and learners' furniture for mobile learning centres under the From Mines to School Project

1. Background

The Education Advocacy Network (EAN) is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting education as a fundamental. Education Advocacy Network together with Resource Rights Africa and Oxfam funded by European Union is implementing the From Mines to School Project that aims to eradicate the worst forms of child labour in mining communities by facilitating the transition of children from hazardous work to quality education.

To address these challenges, EAN is implementing the Accelerated Education Programme (AEP) within the From Mines to School Project, utilizing mobile learning facilities to deliver flexible, accessible education in remote sub-counties. These facilities require high-quality, contextually relevant furniture to support the learning and teaching in the AEP, which is designed to reintegrate out-of-school children into formal education. EAN invites Expressions of Interest (EOI) from qualified suppliers (individuals or entities) to supply office furniture (table and chairs) and learners furniture tailored to the needs of AEP mobile learning facilities in Karamoja.

2. Objectives of the Supply Contract

The supplier will

- Provide high-quality furniture for office use and learners furniture suitable for the AEP mobile learning centres targeting children aged 5–17 in Karamoja's mining communities.
- Ensure materials are contextually relevant, durable, and appropriate for mobile learning environments in remote, resource-constrained settings.

3. Scope of Work

The supplier will undertake the following tasks Supply of Office Furniture: Office table, Office chairs (comfortable and durable), Learners' Furniture; Foldable tables (portable and space-saving), Learners' desks (designed for learner comfort and longevity), Blackboard holders, Blackboards (high-quality, suitable for educational use), Blackboard paint (durable and high-performance).

4. Expected Deliverables.

Physical delivery of all furniture items to the designated locations of the mobile learning centres, as specified by EAN.

Provision of furniture that meets relevant quality and safety standards for educational and administrative use
